Mr. Stephen M. Studdert
Director of Presidential Advance
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Steve:

We at the Central Intelligence Agency have heard nothing but praise and sincere gratitude expressed from our people at all levels for the Presidential visit to our Headquarters this morning. Every aspect of this event from timing to audio quality was testimony to the professionalism and hard work displayed by your White House team. Likewise, the cooperation between our two organizations was a fine example of dedication to excellence and mission accomplishment.

I would particularly like to pass on our thanks to the following for their individual and collective efforts which resulted in this superb and inspiring accomplishment:

Mr. Jim Kuhn, Presidential Advance Staff
Mr. Dan Morris, Presidential Advance Staff
Mr. Mark Hatfield, Presidential Advance Staff
Mr. Dennis Chomicki, U.S. Secret Service
Mr. Gordon Heddell, U.S. Secret Service
Lt. Col. Allan A. Algos, White House Communications Agency
Maj. Glen Whited, White House Communications Agency

As for your decision to move to the rear of the building and create the amphitheater effect, it was correct in all respects. Thanks again, Steve, from all of us.

Sincerely,

Harry E. Fitzwater
Deputy Director for Administration
